This is for both male and female speakers that want to share their insights into better ways to what it means to be a man in today's world. The discussion covered everything from communication skills to sexuality to teaching our kids how to be more respectful (and what respect means for adults as well). And that's when I had an epiphany. What if I bring together some of the top male and female speakers to offer their best tips on communication, respect and what women really want and what men look for in a woman and most of all what it means to be a man(or woman) in today's world. Both men and women are encouraged to register to speak. This has a $150 fee.
