

NORMA T HOLLIS

Sharing the Wisdom of Authenticity

“When she walks into the room, the energy shifts immediately. We lean forward in anticipation as Norma T. Hollis welcomes us with an engaging message that allows us to reflect on our own life. And then, with genuine authority, she enlightens us on how to find, live and share our authentic voice.”

It's true when they say Norma T. Hollis creates an amazing experience from the stage. While her powerful voice reaches each person, it is her sincere authenticity that soothes the heart, and her eloquent words that inspire a new realization in ones self. It's why Norma is sought after time and again!

With over 20 years of experience as a business leader in the speaking and coaching industries, Norma loves speaking to groups of women as well as business leaders who seek transformation. She offers direction to swiftly remove the masks to awaken new realities. Norma's direct, yet calm approach puts everyone at ease, making it a secure venue for one to discover their own authenticity and to make positive changes in their personal and professional lives.

Norma's Signature Speech

● Removing Masks, Awakening Realities

Using thought-provoking observations, Norma shares the ways people disguise their authenticity. The audience is motivated to learn how to know, love and live an authentic life of their own. She encourages the audience to change one small thing in their life as the pathway for self-knowledge, increased confidence and greater success.

“By attending Norma's presentation, I have found new ways of transforming and actually delivering the organization in its highest level. This is something I've always looked for and I found it through Norma's presentation in the most purest form. It's by being authentic and speaking the truth in the most powerful manner.”

Helping You Find, Live & Share Your Authentic Voice

Norma speaks on topics that inspire and motivate. She has done it all: Keynote and breakout speaker, workshops, retreats, emcee, TV/radio appearances, panelist and the new methodology of gamification.

● The Path of Authentic Leadership

The number one trait of authentic leaders is self-awareness. When leaders embrace the path to self-awareness they become transformational. Discover your most potent path to authentic leadership, learn how it engages employees and allow it to transform your organization and your life.

● Authenticity Games

Norma is a master at engaging participants through her 'games' approach. This is a new methodology that offers 70% engagement, 20% coaching and 10% lecture. Audiences love the presentation style, the engagement and particularly the deep learning that evolves from the process. She has multiple 'ready-to-go' games or can customize to meet your organization's specific needs.

"Norma's 'game' was interesting, relevant and fun. It allowed me the opportunity to utilize different leadership modalities as well as just be a member of the team. And it gave me the chance to practice one of my fears in order to execute our project. I love it!!"

Dina Walker, School Board Member
Rialto, CA School District
